

GROUVILLE AND ST. MARTIN

1. The Parish Hall is where we start; what French connection wants to lend us a harbour?

2. There is a welcome sign for the school, but what languages are you welcomed in?

3. He knew how to hit a ball well, but he wasn't any old Tom or Dick. Who is he?

4. It shares its name with a friendly vacuum cleaner; get a photo of your team with it in the background.

5. Its old line is now a playground, but the Jersey Eastern Railway had a home here; what is the name on the wall?

6. What does this structure commemorate?

7. Who were they two New World fugitives hoping to sail from Gorey Pier?

8. A place along the Pier that is guaranteed to feed you a proper Banquet.

9. The rigging on the yard arms is no longer standing on the house that looked down upon Mount Pride. But what was the house for?

10. She ruled for 64 years, and visited the island twice, but on the hill is a stronghold where college pupils would watch the stars. It is protected by a moat, take a photo with your team there.

11. You may take a refreshingly regal drink here after your weary walk, maybe even a bite to eat; how much is their regal home burger?

12. Take a photo of what matters most to you in your district.

13. Take a photo of you and/or your team with a Jersey Cow!
